chosen as a representative on the Council because of his color, but rather because he is the grandson of the famous Cuban national hero, General ANTONIO MACEO GRAJALAS.

PSI AGUSTIN CASTELLANOS has been the personal physician of RAY, and the latter's children, since RAY was an infant. After one of his latest trips to Puerto Rico, Dr. CASTELLANOS (protect identity) stated he had had to reluctantly conclude that RAY is anti-American, and even RAY's good personal friend, Governor MUNOZ MARIN of Puerto Rico, had had to drop him as a political figure, although Governor MUNOZ MARIN did give RAY a job in Puerto Rico. (X)(u)

There are numerous other sources in the Miami Office, including reports from Los Angeles and New York, indicating that the MRP is "Fidelo Comunista" in character, and that MANUEL RAY is regarded at least a dangerous liberal.

San Juan and the Bureau are, of course, aware that MANUEL RAY was dropped as leader of the MRP in the Summer of 1961 and replaced by IGNACIO MENDOZA. The cause, publicly given in the newspapers, was that RAY took independent actions without consulting leading members of the underground of the MRP in Cuba.

[PSI CASTELLANOS] (X)(u) and others stated the cause was really due to the fact that RAY's anti-Americanism and leftist tendencies were showing through and causing unfavorable reaction in the U. S. to the general aims of anti-CASTRO Cubans.

IGNACIO MENDOZA recently wrote a letter which was published in the "Miami News;" criticizing American
